

Miami Institute of Latin American Studies

Teacher Application

Due: May 11, 2007

Please address the completed application to MILAS and submit it to the offices of the Latin American and Caribbean Center (LACC) by May 11th. The application must include: • A completed application form
• Resume

MILAS teachers will receive a $750 stipend each. If hired as a MILAS teacher, you will be responsible for teaching small groups of high school students about topics in Latin America and Miami's immigrant communities. You must create curricula for two seminars and teach them during the first three weeks of the summer program (July 2-27). You will also lead groups of up to six students in MILAS scheduled activities. For more information see milas.fiu.edu

Contact Information:

First Name: _____ Last Name: _____ M.I. _____ Graduation Date: _____ GPA: _____

Address: _____ Major/minor/dept: _____

City: _____ State _____ Zip: _____

Phone (day): _____ Phone (night): _____ E-mail: _____

Have you ever been arrested? _____

List all classes you have taken regarding Latin America:

(include areas which you have the most knowledge/experience - even if it didn't involve taking a class)

Class: _____

Class: _____

Class: _____

Class: _____

Class: _____

Teaching experience, education classes, or involvement with youth:

Extracurricular Activities/Leadership:

Summer Commitments/Plans - jobs, travel, school, etc. (include dates as known):

Short Essay Portion - address the following questions in 2-3 paragraphs each. Append additional information to end of section.

- 1. Why is the study of Latin America important to the contemporary cultural, political and economic atmosphere of this area?
- 2. What teaching strategies, philosophies or approaches do you plan to implement?